CIRCUIT COURT.—No business of special interest was transacted in this court, Saturday. The chancery docket was called in the sitemoon, and at an early hour the court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

Petit jurors will make a note of the fact that they were discharged until 9 o'clock at M. to-day, at which hour they are expected to be in their seats in the court room.

NARROW ESCAPE—Saturday evening a man named Hiram Orr had a narrow escape from being killed while getting on a street car at the corner of Market and Madison streets. Orr, it is said, was under the influence of liquor, and in attempting to get on board, missed the step and tell, the wheel of the car passing over and fell, the wheel of the car passing over one of his hands. It was badly crushed. He was taken to a surgeon's office and the wound properly dressed. PROBATE BUSINESS .- On the 25th ult. the last will and testament of Abram McMorgan, deceased, was probated be-fore Recorder Woods.

A REMARKABLE SUICIDE. Deliberate and Determined Act of Self-Destruction---The Victim Leaves Two Letters, Giving In-structions to the Coroner and Apol-ogizing to his Host.

ogizing to his Host.

(From the Pitisburgh Gazette, Nov. 2.

Yesterday afternoon there was committed in this city one of the most remarkable suicides that we have ever recorded. William Marshall, the victim of sell-destruction, was a pilot, and resided at Wheeling, West Va. On last Saturday he came to the National Hotel, kept by Mr. Mackey, on water street, near Smithfield, and remained during the day. He then paid his bill and went away. Yesterday morning he returned to the hotel and about four o'clock yesterday afternoon he was found in his room in an insensible condition from the effects of an overdose of land-num. An hour afterwards he died. What was most singular about the case was the was most singular about the case was the two letters he had written previous to taking the poison. They were written with a lead pencil and enclosed in buff envelopes, which were stamped. On one envelope was written, "For the Coroner," and the letter read as follows:

and the letter read as follows: PITTSBURGH, Oct. 31, 1872-10 A. M. MESSEA CORONER AND JURY. Gentle-men:—As I am satisfied I can do no more good for myself nor any one else, I am de-out a case, and was mulcted in the costs. termined to take my exit from this world, and morder to assist you in your finding a correct verdict I will say I have taken laudnum. I am yours respectfully, of Wheeling, W. Va.

WM. MARSHALL,

P. S.—Mr. Coroner, if you will have the goodness to mail the letters I left in this room you will confer a great favor. WM. MARSHALL

The other letter was directed with ink to "The Proprietor of the National Hotel, Pittsburgh, Pa," and contained the following. the following:

Ритавиван, Ост. 31, 1872-4 р. м. MR. MACKEY—Dear Sir—I am sorry to put you to so much inconvenience, but my circumstances are so that I can't well resist the istal act I'm about to commit, as horrible as it is to contemplate self-destruction. I am deliberate and determined. These the ford will have mercon asset. struction. I am deliberate and described in the Lord will have mercy on my Wm. Marshall.

At half past eight o'clock last evening Coroner West held an inquest upon the remains, and with the conclusive evidence the jury was not long in bringing in a verdict in accordance with the above lacts. The decessed was a single man and fifty-five years of age. He is said to have been very sober and industrious.

In all the Coroner's experience he are the last of the coroner's experience he are the sum of the enemy.

ONE PLANO EVERT WORKING HOUR —

Fisher and Theodore Miller, natives of Bavaria, and William Linsley, a native of England, were admitted to citizenship in the Circuit Court, Saturday.

Removed.—The office of the Citizens' Railway company was removed to the room formerly occupied by the West Virginia Insurance company, first door south of market street entrance to the McLure House, Saturday. A good change.

Very sober and industrious.

In all the Coroner's experience be says in the case similar to this—where such cool deliberation was evident. It is said that the deceased spent the sales, as the internal revenue returns show; of the next largest maker in America, and excluding those of the twelve largest New York manufacturers combinged. And yet this truly mammoth business and world-wide reputation has been ashieved within less than twenty years, simply through the persevering industry.

So It Mais St., Waeeling, W. Va.
